

Hitting the open road, exploring the countryside. My recreational vehicle is my home when I'm away from home.

➤ At Safeco®, we'll insure your recreational vehicle even if it is your only policy with us. We will also allow you to reduce your coverage when your RV is not in use. So you get the options you need to choose the coverage you want.

TOP 3 REASONS TO CHOOSE SAFECO®

1

Flexible coverage.

At Safeco, we can tailor your RV insurance to meet your needs. No matter what you own – motor home, trailer, or camper – we've got you covered, even if it is your only policy with us.

- Choose from a wide selection of liability, physical damage coverage and deductible options
- Additional coverages available for audio, visual and custom equipment
- We even allow you to reduce your coverage limits when your RV is not in use

2

No road blocks.

Have peace of mind to relax and enjoy your journey. Safeco has you covered in the event of an accident, breakdown, or if your RV becomes uninhabitable.

- Emergency roadside assistance package provides towing, temporary living expenses, and transportation costs
- Coast to coast service means you're never far from one of our claims professionals and we're always available by phone 24 hours a day, 7 days a week

Competitive rates and savings opportunities.

Take advantage of Safeco's competitive rates and special incentives that help you save even more.

- Reduce to comprehensive coverage during the months your vehicle is in winter storage. When it is time to hit the road again, just call your agent to add liability and other coverages again.
- Discounts available when your RV has specific safety features or if you have other policies with Safeco
